[RUS] is one of the most popular programs that allows you to play 3D racing on land. Players can choose a car, the driver of which must pass the most difficult and dangerous sections of the track in the allotted time. For successful races, the player receives points and money. It should be noted that the passage of the route requires maximum concentration and careful preparation. The user can only play one round, after which the game ends. One of the key advantages of the program is the ability to automatically control the car, which greatly helps players who do not have driving experience.
